15 Routes for Sport Tourism in Thailand

Sport Tourism is an important industry which has a significant effect on the national economy and has recently been promoted as part of the 20 Year National Strategy. This type of tourism has seen both interest and value soar in Thailand recently due to its unique appeal and variety of options as well as the emergence of Wellness Tourism in the wake of the recent pandemic.

Tourism Authority of Thailand (TAT) has been involved in the compiling for information related to Sport Tourism and has come up with a list of 125 entries spread across the country, encompassing land, water, and aerial sports as well as golf courses and facilities. Each one of the entries is ready to provide top-level service for tourists as well as be recognized as a quality attraction that meets the needs of the target group. The sites have been grouped into 15 routes and are designed to satisfy the needs of potential tourists looking to relax, keep fit, and hone their sporting skills. We are confident that visitors will be impressed by the selection of sport-related sites contained in each and every route and that they will provide motivation for sports and wellness.

ROUTE 1

3 days 2 nights "Chonburi - Rayong" Experience playing golf at a high-end level

3 Days, 2 Nights of leisurely travel in Chonburi and Rayong, two of Thailand's most renowned eastern provinces. Experience a unique, upscale golf getaway at world-standard golf courses with breathtaking natural scenery, treat yourself in luxurious hotels, get pampered in onsens and spas, whet your appetite with beachfront seafood meals and even enjoy a cup of coffee atop a hill surrounded by breathtaking panoramas.

Start with a round at a 5-star course with spectacular views of Chee Chan mountain for an unforgettable golfing experience, followed by an opulent European themed dinner at a romantic restaurant modelled on a grand castle. End the first day in style, resting at a beachfront five-star hotel with Thai Tourism Industry awards to its name.

The second day of the trip continues in Rayong. Enjoy a round at a challenging championship course, popular among international golfers for its serene, rural surroundings. Today's meal is served at one of Rayong's top seafood bistros, a beachfront eatery which has been praised for both its atmosphere and creative use of fresh, quality ingredients. Spend the night in the province's only five-star hotel and enjoy top-class service and a secluded private beach.

Enjoy the final day at a hilltop café, surrounded by nature. Indulge in some freshly coffee and bakery items while appreciating the vividly coloured rose garden and 360-degree hilltop view. Last but not least, revive the body and mind at a newly-opened spa and Japanese style Onsen and watch work stress and travel fatigue simply melt away.

Opt for an exclusive golf experience with this 18-hole-championship course, situated on a 580-Rai plot beside the Chee Chan mountain, home of the renowned Chee Chan Buddha image. This Buddha image, the largest of its kind, is carved into a cliff and has become one of Pattaya's most visited landmarks. Each and every hole affords a view of this resplendent attraction.

The "Chee Chan Golf Resort, a golfers' paradise of Pattaya" concept is reflected in the course layout. The course itself is suitable for all levels but tricky enough for experienced golfers. A round here means 18 holes of laughter, challenge and excitement.

The Par 4 18th hole is the course highlight. Golfers need to hit their drives uphill towards a green which is situated just in front of the Chee Chan Buddha. This hole is a dogleg, veering left onto a wide section of fairway. Taking the right position on the tee-off spot is essential for a good drive but even then, there are bunkers and a sloping green surface to contend with.

A castle-themed restaurant that presents diners with deeply romantic vibes and features an Italian-inspired interior design. Aside from its magnificent dishes, the scenic 360-degree mountain view is what makes Castello Di Bellagio Pattaya a memorable dining experience.

Upon entering the restaurant, guests will find themselves surrounded by marble on all sides, with ornate antique furniture rounding off the décor. The cuisine on offer is fine Italian fare and the service is befitting for a restaurant of this caliber and the fact that guests are surrounded by mountain peaks just adds to the exquisite dining vibe. There's an indoor zone for diners who are looking to enjoy their meal in a well-lit, airy and comfortable setting, and an outdoor area for those who prefer to eat on the lawn.

There's also a café serving beverages, including freshly ground coffee, and a decent selection of bakery items. Whether you're a serious foodie, a photo lover or a café hopper, there's something here for you.

Suratthep Tohpanich, the first-generation owner, was inspired by a visit to Lake Como in Italy and upon his return to Thailand, he pieced together his memories of the lake and mountains and built his very own restaurant. Full of neat twists, "Castello Di Bellagio" is a unique, one-of-a-kind, Italian inspired restaurant.

If you still fancy a climb, there are 300 stone steps leading up to a Buddha image at the summit. The view from the top is breathtaking and visitors are treated to an elevated view of Sriracha city and the surrounding bay.

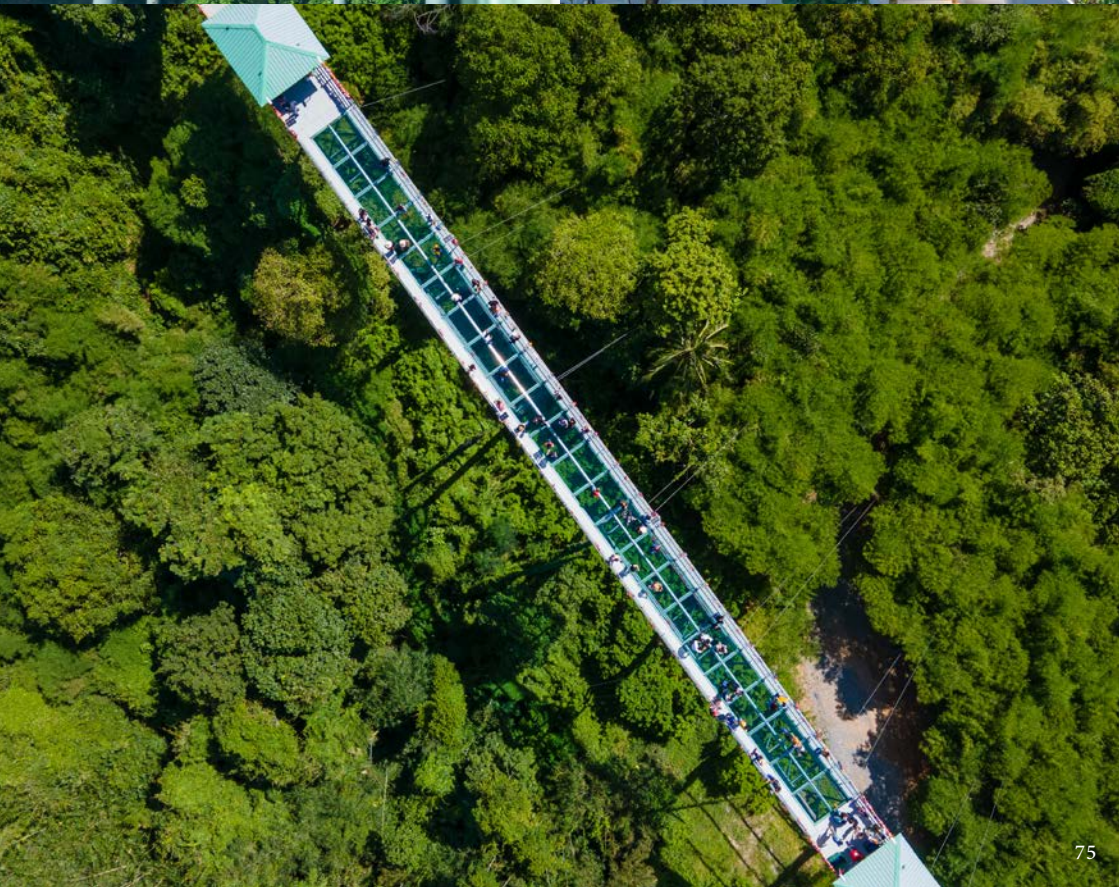

On the way up to the glass bridge, there are dozens of colorful cloths tied along the bridge for visitings looking for blessings, with each color having a different meaning. There is also a Buddha image on the way up to the Skywalk.

Activity

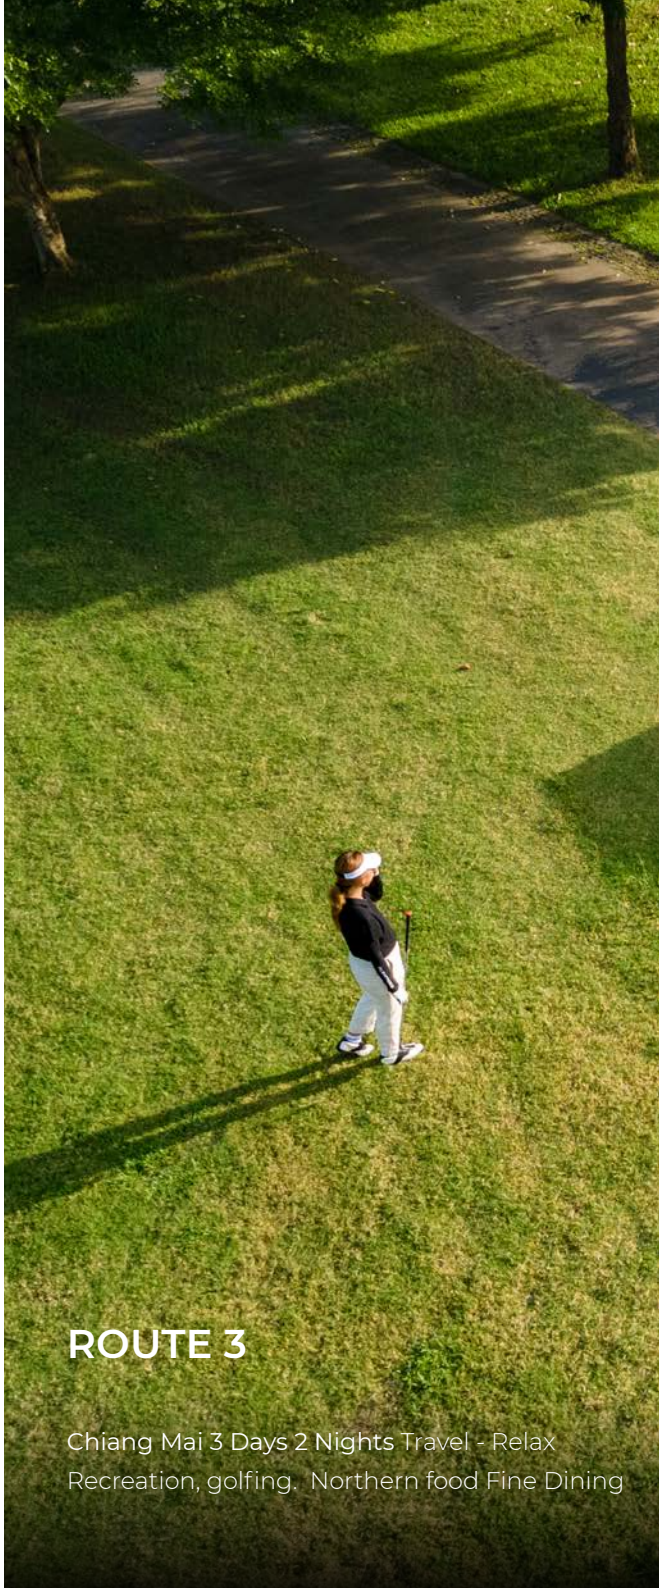

- Tie on a colored cloth to make a wish. Guests can choose the color before ascending the bridge.
- Pay homage to monks and make merit in the temple

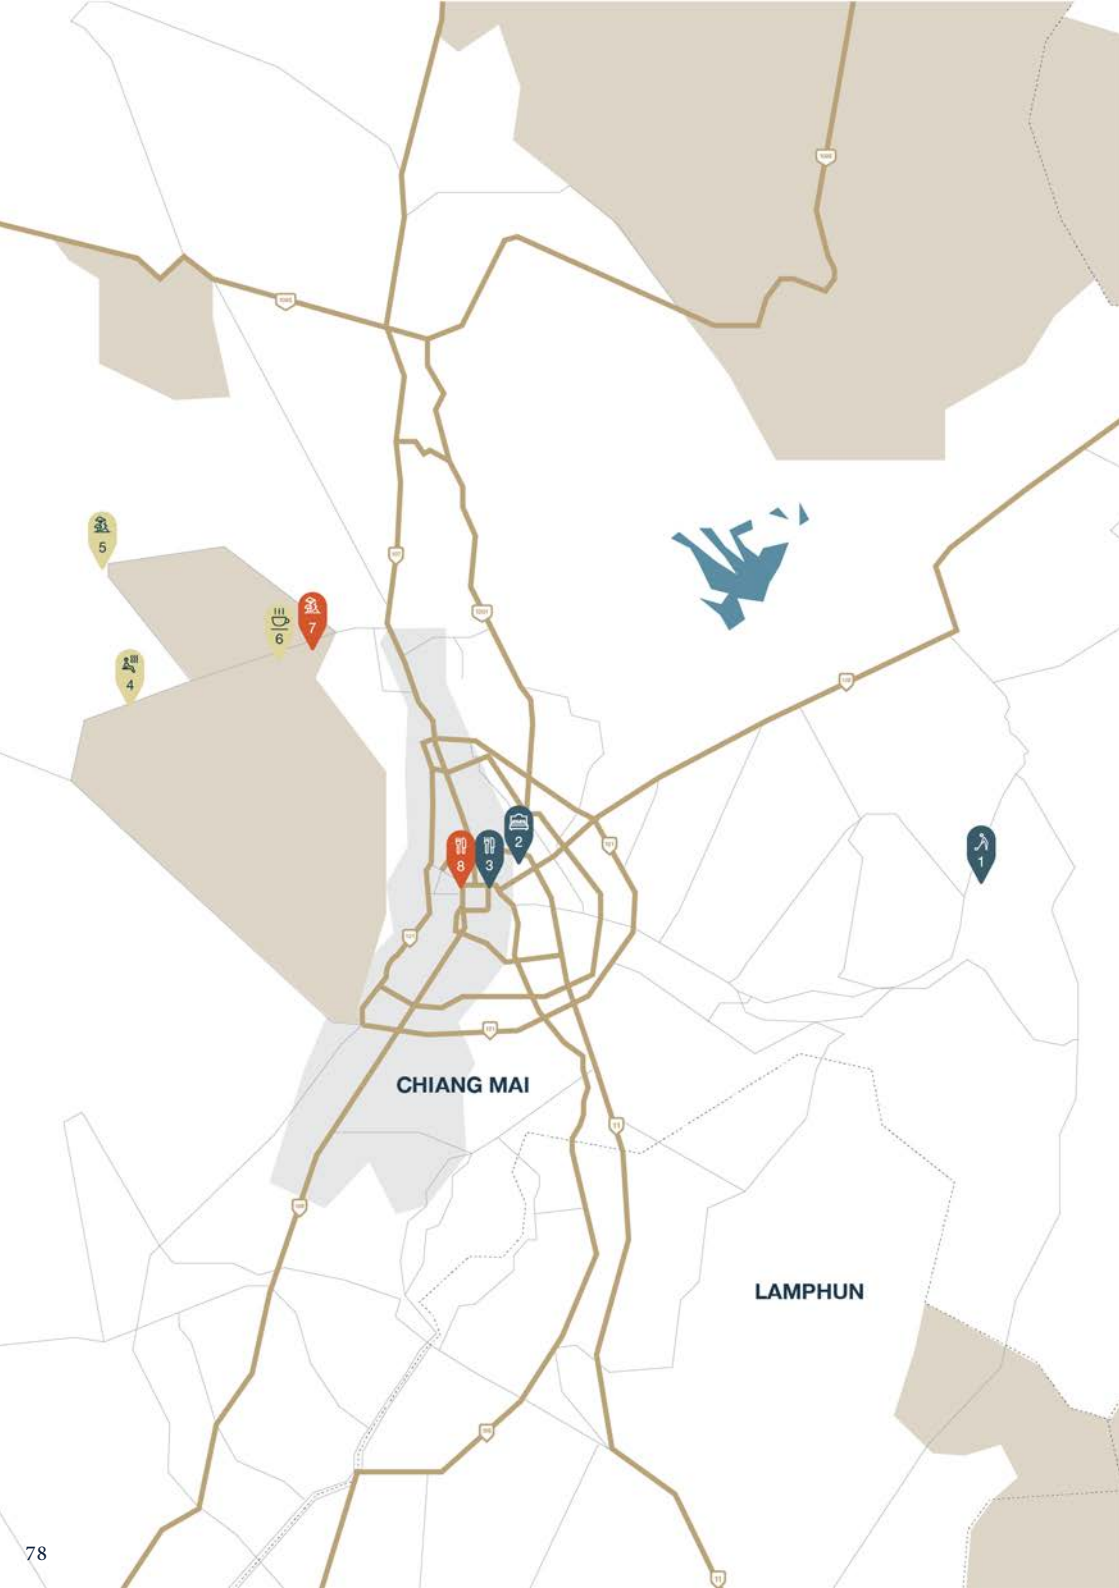

CHIANGMAI

Chiang Mai 3 Days 2 Nights Travel - Relax Recreation, golfing. Northern food Fine Dining

We invite you to experience travel, relaxation, and great golfing on international standard courses in Chiang Mai, the city of Lanna art with an abundance of natural charm. We bring you the taste of traditional Thai food in an authentic northern style from a highly skilled chef, with irresistible dishes and new culinary sensations.

The trip begins with traditional Thai food, semi-fine dining style, in a homey ambience. Following this, join us for a round and stretch your legs on some of the country's most beautiful golf courses, before relaxing in a 5-star hotel on the banks of the Ping River, which blends comfort, modernity and Lanna cultural heritage.

Next, we invite you to experience nature on Doi Mon Chaem and immerse yourself in the mist and morning flowers. Chill out at local restaurants and cafes, and take great photos among the pine trees and English flower gardens

We then switch up the accommodation by taking you to a Lanna style luxury hotel up in the mountains, surrounded by rivers and swathes of green forest.

End the trip strolling among the rainbow-colored Celosia flower fields, before finishing off with some delicious local Thai food made with carefully selected local ingredients and a feeling of simple, unhurried joy.

Visit the flower garden on Mon Chaem peak with its magnificent purple Margaret blooms. This small garden comes alive with colorful blooms and visitors can walk around, take pictures or cross the long wooden bridge and enjoy the fresh air in the morning. The best time to visit is at the end of the rainy season and beginning of the winter, between October- January of every year. During the early morning, with the sun rising on the horizon, visitors can see a sea of white fog rolling across the mountain, making for some stunning photos. It is recommended to park your car in the parking area and call the garden to have them pick you up when you visit.

The highlight of this flower garden is its hilltop location, surrounded by the nature of Doi Mon Jam. Recommended times for visiting are at the end of the rainy season and the beginning of winter, sometime between October and January when the morning are cool and misty.

Fleur Café & eatery is a British style restaurant and café that gives you the feeling of being transported away to Europe.

The name of this Mae Rim café means ‘flower’ in French and it features clean looking white buildings, surrounded by an expanse of garden with numerous species of plants and flowers in bloom.

The building itself was originally a vacation home where relatives and acquaintances came to stay when visiting Chiang Mai. The aim when opening the restaurant was to make the customers feel as welcome as if they were dining at a friend’s house and allow them to spend some family time surrounded by glorious nature.

The cafe is divided into 2 zones, an Indoor area with air-conditioned rooms and an outdoor space with a cool breeze provided by nature. Both areas are perfect to relax as well as containing some top-notch photo spots. The service is warm and friendly, as you would expect, and the restaurant has already been SHA certified.

British style restaurant and café with a large, open garden filled with numerous plant species to help guests feel relaxed and at one with nature. Le Fleur offers an outstanding menu with both Thai and western dishes, fresh ingredients and eye-catching presentation.

Activity

- We have 2 spots for kayaking so you can check-in and take photos. We provide life jackets at each spot for the safety of our customers.
- 4 acres of Magnificent garden area with greenery trees and flowers, particularly various kind of roses, allow visitors to enjoy a scenic stroll.

Food Service

Western food and Thai food

Signature Menu

- Black-Ink Riso Pasta With Shrimps & Mixed Seafood: This dish uses hard-to-find, rice-shaped pasta called riso, stir-fried in squid ink with various seafood for an unmistakable aroma and mellow flavor.
- Rose Dirty Coffee : The sweet-scented rose gardens that surround the café were the inspiration for this beverage, which uses rich rose-scented milk to create a perfect contrast with the intense espresso shot.
- Coconut Cake : The concept behind this cake is that of a toasted coconut. The outside is made from dark chocolate, while the inside has a smooth coconut mousse texture and coconut-scented sponge cake filling.

Photogenic Spots

A glance out of the window in the café zone gives a view of pine trees which looks just like a landscape painting. The rose stairway with flowers of different shades and the three white buildings which create an elliptical effect when photographed just add to the charm and atmosphere.

Visit the valley of the rainbow-colored Silosia flowers in Chiang Mai's Six Flowers Garden.

Tourists can come here to relax, have a coffee, enjoy some snacks and soak up the atmosphere amidst gardens full of Silosia, also known as Japanese Cockscomb, blooms.

This flower garden covers an area of over 8 rai and houses colorful Silosia flowers in yellow, orange, red, pink and purple hues. As the flowers are planted in rows of alternating colors, when viewed from afar, it gives the impression of a rainbow. Add this to a backdrop of Doi Suthep and Doi Pui mountains and you can understand why visitors leave with a happy glow.

Aside from Silosia flowers, there are also Sunflower and Margaret fields, and a small cafe decorated in a modern, white style with the snacks and beverages like tea, coffee and Italian soda, as well as a selection of cakes and tarts for dessert.

Entrance fee for the garden is 60 THB per person (All day pass)

The highlight of this garden is the celosia plantation, where these multi-colored flowers sit in curved stair lines and gradients in red, orange, and yellow pink and purple. When taking pictures of flowers, you can see the view of the twin peaks of Doi Suthep and Doi Pui National park in the background.

The best time to visit

This Thai restaurant is decorated in a contemporary style and the interior is brought to life with flowers of various colors and shades, which stand out against the classic white and brown furniture. A meal here is like dining in the comfort of your own home.

The owner has been passionate about the taste of Thai food ever since he was young and helped his parents prepare the ingredients and sell food as he was growing up, which inspired him to have his own small, cozy restaurant. Every dish is prepared with attention to detail, as if the customers were family members.

A Thai restaurant that truly cares about ingredients and flavor. Every dish is kept as authentic as possible, with only a few minor adjustments to keep with the times and appeal to younger generations.

The menu at Baan Landai is unique in that it contains many hard-to-find local delicacies from the Lamphun province.

Food Service

Thai food, with a strong northern influence, using seasonal ingredients from within the local communities. We make sure that all our Thai ingredients are free of chemicals and naturally grown.

Signature Menu

Baked Ribs with Red Wine Sauce, Tom Yum Stewed Pork Neck, Stir-Fried Traditional Mee with Shrimp in Tamarind Sauce, Mee Hun in Crab Curry with Cha-Plu Leaves and Pomegranate Fish Fillin

Photogenic Spots

The interior of the restaurant is decorated to create a warm, simple atmosphere. The old building style is still preserved and the dining space makes use of tables and flower placement to provide privacy and comfort for each group of guests.

Huay Tueng Thao Reservoir is one of the royal initiatives to solve the problem of water shortages in military agricultural centers and nearby communities. Later on, the area developed into a major tourist attraction, with the highlight being a large reservoir surrounded by a sandy beach and beautiful surrounding nature. On a clear day, you can make out Doi Suthep peak from the reservoir. The reservoir has become a top spot for visitors and locals to sit and relax on a raft and enjoy a meal as well as, rafting, boating, duck boating, fishing, exercise and cycling. The entrance fee to enjoy the area around the reservoir is 20 THB per person

Huay Tueng Thao is another popular recreational site in Chiang Mai. It is a large reservoir located in the midst of nature with a sandy beach where swimming is possible.

There are bamboo rafts by the lake to sit and enjoy some food or snacks with a cool breeze.

There is also a gamut of activities to choose from such as visiting a sheep farm, riding a duck boat, shooting BB Guns, driving an ATV, etc.

One of the most popular sporting activities, and one that you shouldn't miss, is cycling around the reservoir on a natural route.

At more than 20 kilometers long, it's enough to get the blood pumping, while enjoying the view of nature. It's a fun route with various places of interest to stop off at and, of course, a chance to meet fellow cycling enthusiasts and nature lovers.

The route starts on the road along the canal at Phu Kham Hotel Intersection. Upon reaching Huay Kaew Road, turn right to the 700-year stadium through a reservoir. Then enter the road around the Huai Tung Tao Reservoir and take the route up to Ban Hmong, Doi Pui

- Take a tour around the garden and pick oranges. along with taking cute photos on the bamboo bridge

The best time to visit

Winter season from November to January (depending on the weather conditions of each year)

Travel Tips

For a visit to Pang Hua Flower Garden, It is recommended to visit during winter between November and January.

When the weather is getting cold, winter flowers and fruits begin to bloom and blossoms create a beautiful scene of the beginning of spring.

It is recommended to visit in the morning between 07.00 and 09.00 because the sunlight is not too strong and the weather is a little chilly.

Another time is in the evening from 16.30 - 18.30 because if you are lucky, you will get a chance to see the vanilla sky which is the most beautiful time of the sky.

The coffee shop is a small two-story wooden house decorated with natural materials. The surrounding area features shady forests and small streams. There are plenty of comfy seating areas inside, just inviting you to relax.

The café menu is full of great drinks, tea and homemade bakery items made with the finest ingredients, all made with care and attention to detail. Destress, drink up and enjoy the green surroundings and don't forget to post on social media to make your friends green with envy!

Homemade cafe hidden in the middle of the forest among the streams, with a natural view. Magical moment of happiness await anyone who stops by this beautiful place.

Food Service

Homemade drinks and bakery

Signature Menu

If you are fan of coffee , we recommend trying the signature Utsah Rose. It's a milky coffee that is easy to drink and looks similar to dirty coffee. The special ingredient though, is rose syrup, which is mixed with special milk from the cafe and topped with an Espresso shot.

As for dessert, the recommended choice is Cheesecake, which has an irresistibly soft, smooth texture. The sweet and sour flavors of the cheese combine perfectly with the crunchy base. Another popular choice is Hokkaido Milk Cake, a sweet, mellow cake with a buttery scent, made with real fresh milk from Hokkaido.

NANGTHONG BEACH - KHAO LAK LIGHTHOUSE

Beside the white sand beaches that have become Khao Lak's distinguishing feature, there lies a small black sand beach known as Nang Thong. Located in Takua Pa district, Phang Nga. This unique example of nature's creative powers came about when slag left over from the days when Takua Pa was Thailand's most prosperous mining zone, mixed with the sand, giving the section of beach a black tinge. Another landmark here is the Khao Lak lighthouse, which was built after the 2004 Tsunami and remains the area's most iconic photography and sunset spot.

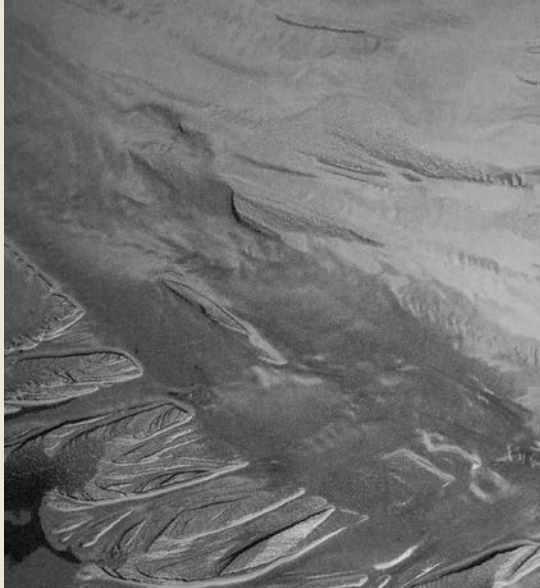

Another spot to view the beauty of the Phang Nga Sea. The sun setting over the horizon with the silhouette of Khao Lak Lighthouse creates a beautiful scene, which many have compared to a painting. It's less crowded here than many of Khao Lak's beaches so its perfect for strolling or taking pictures. Surfing is also popular here due to the waves but surfers should be wary of sharp and slippery rocks.

The best time to visit

The best time to visit is from 16.30 - 18.00 The beach is at its blackest and most beautiful and the tide is going out, revealing a path so to the lighthouse where you can take photos and watch the sunset.

With equal appeal for both café and photography enthusiasts, Nitan café is a British-style restaurant serving food, desserts and beverages, surrounded by beautiful gardens and tiny streams. The additional details like tree houses and cute dolls make diners feel like they've slipped into a fairy tale world. The café was the brainchild of Khun Ann Prachya Singto and Khun Bow Sivaphon Singto, a couple who dreamed of having their very own small café. They named the café after their daughter, Nitan, took many baking classes and spent a lot of time designing the menu so it would fit in with the concept of fairy tales. Every dish, beverages, dessert and ice cream on the menu here is created with attention to detail and using only the best quality ingredients to guarantee great taste. The recommended dishes are Cocktail Sausages, Thai Teriyaki Salmon with Rice and Penne Carbonara. For snacks and beverages, Maleficent is recommended. This dish is for perfect chocolate lovers as it is filled with rich, sweet chocolate in various forms. Bumble Bee is the coffee shop's special recipe, a beverage based on sweet, fragrant wild honey as the name suggests, and topped with tangy tamarind syrup. The sweetness and sourness of the drink combine perfectly.

Enjoy a tourist experience complete with some hi-end relaxation out in Pathum Thani Province. The city is full of authentic, Thai style tourist attractions with an unmistakable romantic charm. Those who have a passion for golf and are visiting the province for the first time should try a round on the unique and rather challenging course that winds through the hills here. It's renowned for being one of the trickiest courses in the whole of Thailand and very popular with golfers trying to prove their worth. After a round, we will stop for coffee, have lunch and snacks at a cozy, Roman-style café, before checking in at a luxury hotel in the heart of the city. Cap off the day with dinner along the Chao Phraya River and taste some great Thai fusion dishes under the stars. Start the following day by paying homage to monks and making merit, visiting beautiful temples, visiting a beautiful silver and white chapel which glimmers under the glittering sunlight, then continue with golf at an unusual golf course with narrow, winding fairways surrounded by rivers and tall trees. End the trip with a delicious dinner at a modern Thai Food Service by the Chao Phraya River that comes complete with beautiful, breathtaking scenery.

Recline on one of the many chairs and order some food and chilled drinks in the heart of Chanthaburi at Koff House Coffee Bar & Eatery. A 90's style restaurant, stylishly decorated to resemble a stylish gemstone mine alongside Chanthaboon river. A café and restaurant in one, with café located in front serving up aromatic coffee and bakery items in a homely atmosphere. In the back is an SHA certified restaurant that offers both Thai and European food menus. Inside, there are many zones, nooks and crannies for you to sit and relax. The indoor area is decorated in a chic retro style and the outside zone comes with a natural breeze and views of Chanthaboon River. We recommend the Koff House specialty - homemade pizza with fresh chili, ham and sausage. The selling point is the rich sauce topped with ham, sausages and fresh chili on a paper-thin, irresistibly crispy crust. The taste is as delicious as it looks. There are many other dishes on offer, such as Fish Platter Rolls, Squid Ink Fettuccine with Bacon, Anchovies and Ebiko, Fried Rice with Dried Shrimp and Salted Egg Toast served with Vanilla Ice Cream, among others. At night there is a full bar serving drinks along with a rousing live band playing 90s favorites.

The interior is decorated with the gem mining equipment from Chanthaburi Province. Thai and European food are available in a comfortable atmosphere on the banks of the Chanthaboon River

Huay Pla Kang Temple is one of the most beautiful and famous temples of Chiang Rai province. The architecture of the temple mixes Chinese and Lanna arts and houses a large statue of Guan Yin Bodhisattva. There are stucco Buddha images in Lanna style that enshrine the beautiful chapel where visitors can come to pay respects. Huai Pla Kang Temple is very popular for those looking to practice Dharma and is considered as one of the important origins of Buddhism in Chiang Rai. The temple is located on a hill surrounded by lush green mountains and the large Guan Yin Bodhisattva statue stands at 79 meters tall or the equivalent of a 25-26-storey building, and can be seen from miles around. You can take the elevator to the 25th floor to the viewpoint and see the beautiful landscape of Chiang Rai. There is also "Phop Chok Dhamma Chedi", a 9-storey chedi that took 999 days to build. The pointed shape of the chedi is a combination of Chinese and Lanna art with a red dragon roof that lays on top on both sides of the stairs.

The white chapel, decorated with stucco patterns at the rear and featuring a stairway in the shape of a beautiful Naga serpent. The interior houses a white Buddha statue and more intricate stucco patterns on the walls. Visitors can pay their respects and walk up to the viewpoint to see the surrounding scenery from behind the eyes of the Goddess of Mercy. This is another highlight that should not be missed.

You can visit from 07.00 - 21.00 and different times of day present different types of beauty regarding the view.

Khao Sok National Park is one of the biggest forests of the south, also known as a land of mountains and rainforests. You can experience the beauty of this national park through adventure trail running activities on nature trails in Ratchaprapha Dam Park. Along the trails, you will get to experience the incredible variety of nature on display here as you pass waterfalls, cliffs and caves. This path will challenge your body and mind.

Trail running is a sport for professional runners who are looking for new challenges and for beginners who are looking to get fit enough to compete in a running race. It's also ideal for those who love to travel on nature trails. Runners should study and practice hard in order to gain enough strength and prepare before doing it for real. Anything could happen on the trail with the obstacles during walking, running and climbing, so it's important to be prepared. Each event will have a different path so you should run along the specified route and stick to it to avoid accidents. A good trail run will strengthen body and mind.

PHUKET

Check in, dine and explore over 5 days and 4 nights in Phuket. Hit the old town championship golf course and indulge in some of the finest southern cuisine.

The city known as the 'Pearl of the Andaman' is ready to welcome you for a round of golf on beautiful championship courses, before whipping you across the waves on a jet ski tour of the attractions around the island. Surf's up at Surin Beach, where you can also enjoy the seaside and relax in luxury rooms and food lovers can taste authentic southern dishes with traditional recipes at a century-old stately home, or southern fusion food from renowned eateries in the old town. This action-packed trip won't be forgotten in a hurry.

Kick off with a trip to the commercial district where restaurants, coffee shops, souvenir shops and hotels are located. Your accommodation for the first day will be a uniquely decorated luxury hotel located on Ka Beach, blending local culture with Sino-Portuguese influences. Day two starts with a round of golf at one of the most exciting golf courses in Phuket, distinguished by the red rock formations from the old mines. Alternatively, you could choose to play a round at the championship course where famous golfer Tiger Wood previously competed. Follow this with a trip to Phuket's secret beach, hidden in the middle of a beautiful, scenic valley and take a break at Balinese style restaurant serving Italian favorites and playing some great tunes down on the beach. The third day is time for relaxation mode to kick in after the activities of the first two days. We will take you to be pampered and get rid of those aches and pains at a famous, award winning spa that took numerous accolades at the 13th Thailand Tourism Awards, and then dining at a famous restaurant serving up southern favorites mixed with European flavors. Day four revolves around a thrilling water sports experience and a trip to the beautiful waters of the Phuket Sea. Start with travelling to attractions around Phuket Island on a Jet Ski and continue with other popular sports such as surfboarding. Stop off to add some sweetness to your day with a chic cafe in Phuket Old Town which is famous for its green tea, before retiring to a luxury hotel. On the final day, before leaving, enjoy a meal at a 100-year old house, a Michelin-starred local restaurant with the most romantic homestay in Phuket and finally, travel to another beautiful sunset viewpoint while watching planes come in to land at Mai Khao Beach.

Ryn - Authentic Tea & Slow Drop Coffee, a green tea shop decorated in a simple Tea Room and Cafe style. The café offers many choices of high-quality drinks with the main focus on the process. The café extracts the tea in such a way that it guarantees intensity of flavor. There are also various cakes to choose from. The cafe is ready for tourists who want to relax and experience the true taste of tea and has received the standard of hygiene safety (SHA).

The concept of the cafe is quite simple, focusing on the use of space. There are 2 floors, on the 1st floor is a counter bar, where guests can observe the tea making process and watch coffee being brewed, while the second floor is mezzanine space that has 2 zones: a zone with tables and chairs for convenience and a more laid-back seating area with tatami mats.

Michelin-starred local restaurants and romantic homestays at Baan Ar Jor (Ban Thuat), a living museum with memories and heartwarming stories of more than 100 years of history. Most of the interior of the restaurant was design during the renovation of a white Sino-Portuguese / Sino-colonial house that dates back over 80 years. The kitchen and dining room has been transformed into a restaurant called Red Table, where you will be treated like long lost friends by locals and students who serve as staff.

This house was renovated as a gift to grandfather, but at present it also benefits tourists who want to experience the atmosphere of 1936 along with tasting authentic, century-old old recipes. A visit here also means supported the youth of local communities.

Witness the beauty of the secret beach near Patong; just one visit and you'll be hooked. The beach is wild and almost deserted, so it's perfect for relaxation. This hidden destination near Patong Beach should not be passed over. Formerly known as Mai Ngao Beach, or 'Haad Mai Ngam' in Thai, this serene, stunning stretch of sand lies hidden in a valley and features powdery white sand and clear waters. There is also a restaurant and diving equipment rental service at the huts at the end of the beach.

The beach area, although not huge, is peaceful and private. You can come to sunbathe or have a picnic with your family. Snorkeling to see the beauty underwater is also popular at this spot.

Activity

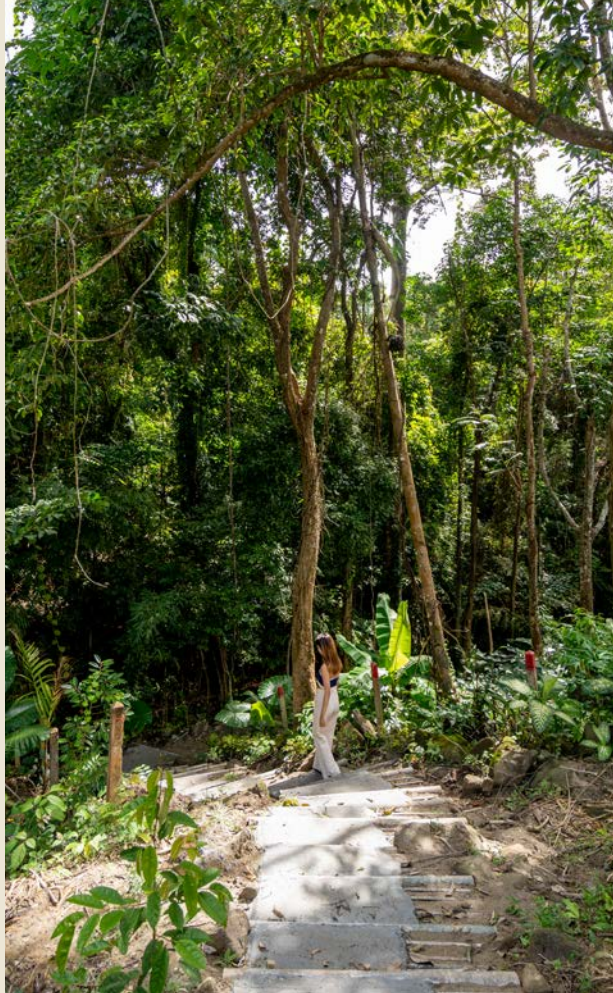

- At Freedom Beach, snorkeling gear can be rented to explore the beauty of the underwater world around the beach.
- Another popular activity among tourists visiting this beach is playing beach sports such as beach volleyball, beach soccer, etc.
- The beach is popular among foreign tourists who want to relax and sunbathe, mostly due to the incredibly fine sand

Dive into a new experience with a touch of relaxation. Restore the body and balance the elements with the science of Thai traditional medicine combined with natural therapy treatment among the surrounding forests and mountains at Sukho Wellness & Spa Resort, a traditional Thai medical clinic and Balinese-style resort situated up in the verdant hills. Experience a welcoming atmosphere and check out scores of herbal plants planted around the resort. The spa also offers rooms and meals.

Natural treatment based on the science of Thai traditional medicine by a team of medical experts. Anyone who seeks treatment is required to see a doctor first to assess symptoms and check heart rate. The doctor will then select a treatment and herbal medication that is suitable for each person's symptoms. And the highlight of this spa is the glass cupping called treatment and the medicinal burning procedure. This is the signature of Sukho Wellness, the only Thai traditional medical clinic located in Phuket.

Activity

- Drug incineration procedure helps to resolve flatulence, swelling and constipation. It involves the use of heat from fire to spread the herbs and clear out obstructions.
- Cupping is the use of heat create a vacuum inside the cup. It helps to improve blood circulation, reduce congestion, reduce blood clots within the body and promote good health.

Wat Arun Ratchawararam Ratchaworawihan

is one of the most famous and important temples in Bangkok. It's also a magnificent example of architecture, and looks nothing short of iconic, standing by the Chao Phraya River. It is a popular landmark that both Thai and foreign tourists must visit at least once. Wat Arun is a first-class royal temple in the former palace area. Inside, there is a large pagoda that still retains the architecture from the old city, created by skilled craftsmen. The pagoda is decorated with glazed tiles and Benjarong pottery imported from China. Benjarong has very rare and beautiful patterns created using an ancient technique. The entrance arch of the temple features 'Yak Wat Chaeng' giants standing guard in front of the door. The white and green behemoths hold giant clubs to fight off intruders. Wat Arun is a wonderful place to watch both sunrise and sunset.

Wat Arun Ratchawararam Ratchaworawihan is a royal temple, that has existed since the Ayutthaya period and is known as one of the most impressive pagodas of the Rattanakosin period. It's not just the size of the stupa that is impressive, the whole spire is decorated with intricately designed glazed tiles and Benjarong pottery imported from China. Benjarong features very rare and beautiful patterns created by skilled craftsmen using ancient techniques.

The best time to visit

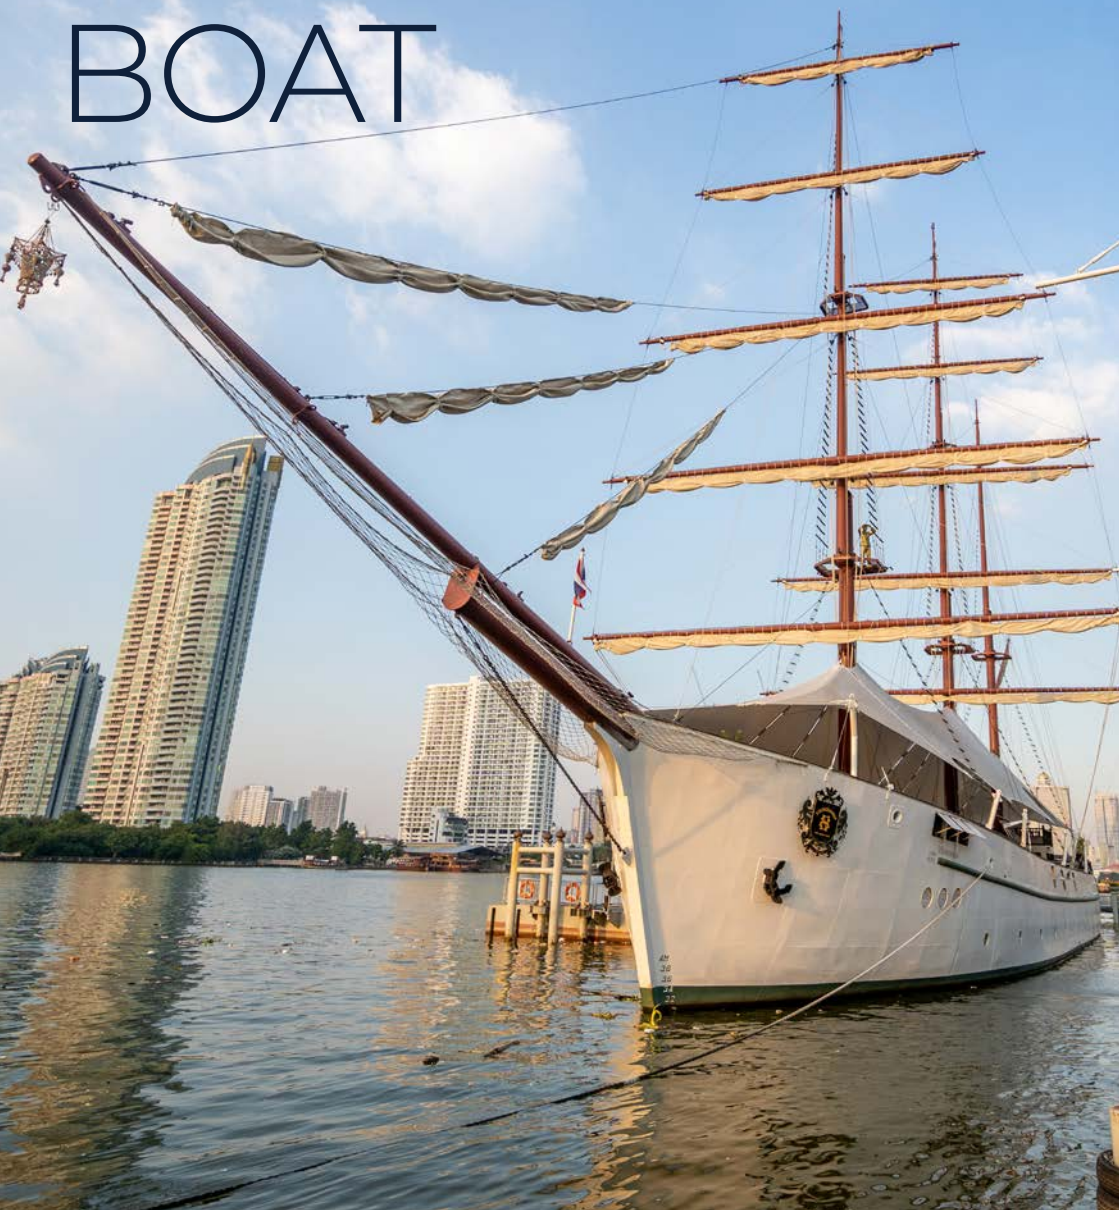

You can visit, pay homage to monks, make merit and pay respect to sacred artifacts at any time

Suggestion

To enter the temple you should dress appropriately and strictly abide by the rules. Women should dress modestly and tank tops, sleeveless shirts, crop tops, or other revealing items should be avoided. For men, long pants and a shirt with sleeves should be worn.

Experience the ultimate surfing activities in the heart of Bangkok at Flow House Bangkok. This beach club is a simulated surfing center where you can exercise and hang out. Flow House Bangkok is an open space for maximum natural wind flow and sunlight and features decoration including beach chairs, umbrellas and surfboards for that authentic beach bum vibe. There is also a shop selling surfing apparel and equipment. Meals, snacks and beverages are available, especially homemade pizza with special recipes. A bar offering a wide selection of cocktails, mocktails, soft drinks and draft beers is open so that you can hang out after surfing.

FlowRider creates a thin film of water flowing over a hill-like shape which forms a perfect wave and the set-up was imported from the United States with world-class safety standards. Flow Boarding is a hybrid board sport, somewhere between skateboarding, surfing, and snowboarding. The key is to stay balanced while riding the wave. Once you have mastered the basics you are free to come up with your own moves. There will also be a skilled coach taking care of you and offering tips and advice. This extreme sport activity is suitable for everyone, and both children and adults of all ages can come and have some fun. If you are a first-timer, you'll get to learn how to surf under the tutelage of a seasoned personal instructor.
